New Evangelism Efforts

A belated Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone! The Lord has graciously provided for our needs throughout this past year, as well as given us protection, safety, guidance, etc. We praise the Lord for his mercy and goodness, but we also thank everyone of you for your faithfulness in prayers and support for us; even more so with all the Christmas bonuses!!! THANK YOU!

This month has been very busy with the return of the “snowbirds” which adds faithful people for our little church. We returned to Zapotan, a small village in the mountains, and brought donations for the schools, senior citizens, and mom and tots clubs. It is really awesome that we could pull the bible out in all of these government ran programs and preach to them...which ultimately is due to the donations we bring, but I'll take it! I believe there were more that heard the truth and received Jesus Christ as their savior this year, and others strengthened to live for him and get out of religion.

We are two hours away from that little village and have prayed for years that God would call someone to that town to serve. A huge answer to prayer is that a Mexican native from Washington State has started a bible believing church only twenty minutes from them and will be able to visit and work with the people of that village. His dad is actually the man who started the church our area in the late 70's, so we are excited to see someone who can minister to the people we have been reaching for the last four years.

Here in our area, we are prepping new tracts and invitations for our church as we are planning evangelistic campaigns for January. I also started up evangelistic classes again to teach how to win souls. We even ran simulated conversations on how to direct the conversation straight into the bible to show true salvation. The church is excited and ready to get out there, so we are praying that the Lord would allow us to see fruit of the labor quick and early in the year.

The plan is to start where we are and continue to work out through various methods of door to door, street work, and open air evangelism. We live in a high tourist area (the church is 2 blocks from the beach) but I didn't come here to enjoy the sand and the sun... I have a limited amount of time to reach as many people as possible before the return of Jesus Christ— and that's what I plan to do for as long as the Lord allows! Please pray with us that we can see many people saved and change their lives for the Lord this year.

Praise the Lord we already have one person that we are discipling faithfully. I have translated and taught half of the lessons and it seems to be going well. We will then put all the lessons together in booklet form and be prepared to teach even more people this year!

On a side note from all the ministry stuff, the family is doing well. We are alive and continuing along with normal life. Our Christmas was amazing this year as my family made it down for the first time— and just in time for the holidays! I haven't seen my mom in over two years, so seeing her and my sister with her family was a real treat. It can get real lonely at times so we praise the Lord for opportunities like that.

Brothers and sisters keep up the good fight!

God bless-
